Before service will be established; a Security Deposits will be required for all business customers (property owners and tenants) provided electricity in an amount equal to twelve (12) months' average usage but in no case less than $480.00. This amount will be based on the previous (12) month consumption for the premises in question, if available, or will be estimated by CMLP. If the business customer has multiple accounts, a separate deposit will be required for each account. Security deposit amounts are reviewed periodically and may be adjusted if there is a substantial change.

Customers also have the option of providing an irrevocable Standby Letter of Credit from their bank in lieu of a deposit. The bank letter of credit must be irrevocable for the period of electric service and state that payment must be surrendered to CMLP upon demand.

The undersigned represents that he/she is Customer or a duly-authorized representative of Customer, and is hereby requesting Town of Concord Municipal Utilities to supply service to the location indicated on this application. The undersigned Customer agrees to pay for services, and to abide by the Rules and Regulations of the said services, including Customer maintaining his/her wiring and equipment in conformance with all applicable standards.

In case the customer should become in arrears in payment for service rendered, the Customer affirms that he/she understands the overdue balance must be paid along with any and all fee's associated with disconnect and reconnection of service(s) as well as deposit (if applicable) as a condition to reconnection of service. He/she further understands that service may be denied to him/her at this or any other location as long as this account remains in arrears and he/she agrees that any such prior balance can be added to any other present or future account of customer with Town of Concord Municipal Utilities.

Customer agrees in order for us to service noted accounts or to collect amounts that maybe owed, we may contact you by telephone at any telephone associated with your account, including cell phone numbers, which could result in charges to you. We may also contact you by sending text messages or e-mails, using any e-mail address you provide.

Customer further confirms that he/she understands that it is a violation of state law to apply for service with the intent to avoid payment of lawful price or for any person to assist another in avoiding payment for electricity. For value received, he/she hereby guarantees payment of all bills that may become due under the above service contract.
