Concord Annual Town Election Postponed to June 11, 2020 Due to Coronavirus Concerns

CONCORD, MA—Town of Concord Annual Town Election scheduled for Tuesday, March 31, 2020, has been postponed until June 11, 2020 following a vote of the Select Board pursuant to the provisions of Chapter 45 of the Acts of 2020, section 1, paragraphs a and b.

Under the provisions of section 3 of the same Act, current Town Election materials originally prepared for the March 31, 2020 Election will be used for the rescheduled Election. Any additional ballots printed will be identical with the originally scheduled election date.

Absentee and Early Ballots are now available

All absentee ballots for the Local Election will be counted on June 11, 2020.

If you are unable to get to the polls in person on Election Day due to absence from Concord during polling hours, disability, religious beliefs, or if you are confined to your home, member of a population vulnerable to illness, or avoiding your polling place as a precautionary measure in response COVID-19, then you are eligible to vote by absentee ballot.

Early Voting by mail will be available for the postponed election as well. The deadline for both absentee ballot applications and early ballot applications will be Wednesday, June 10, 2020 at 12noon. Use of a form is not necessary but a signature is required. Family members may apply for an absentee ballot on behalf of another family or household member who is unable to get to the polls in person.

Voter Registration Deadline for Rescheduled Election

The Voter registration deadline for the rescheduled election is Monday, June 1, 2020 at 8:00 pm. The Town Clerk's Office staff will be available until 8:00pm on that day. While the office is closed to the public, please use mail (lockbox to drop off in person is located at the left side entrance to the Town House), email or call us to make arrangements.
