2020 Annual Town Meeting Postponed

CONCORD, MA— The Concord Annual Town Meeting scheduled to begin on Monday, April 27th, 2020 has been postponed due to the public health and safety emergency created by the novel coronavirus, COVID-19.

As Concord and the world at large continue to grapple with this highly contagious virus, the Town Moderator, in consultation with the Select Board and Concord Public Safety Officials, has made the decision to postpone Town Meeting until a time when it is deemed safe.

Annual Town Meeting will be postponed until at least May 18, with further postponement possible. A formal Declaration on April 24, 2020 to Recess and Continue Annual Town Meeting to a date in May will be made on April 24, 2020.

For more information on Town Meeting, the warrant for the 2020 Annual Town Meeting, and more please visit concordma.gov/TM2020.
