Mass Audubon's Brewster Woods

Renata Pomponi and Mass Audubon colleagues will share an early preview of the master planning process at Brewster's Woods Wildlife Sanctuary on Balls Hill Road. Envisioning the property as a place where stewardship, art, and science will converge, Mass Audubon is looking for input from local organizations and community members who are already doing important work in these areas. Renata will present an overview of the planning framework, answer questions, and provide an opportunity for the group to share their ideas for potential collaborations and opportunities for Brewster's Woods to contribute to Concord's conservation community.
