Subject: Transparency Concerns Ahead of IHRA Definition Vote

Dear Members of the Concord Select Board,

I am writing as a Concord resident regarding the upcoming vote on adoption of the IHRA definition of antisemitism.

I want to make you aware that an organized advocacy message was circulated to Concord residents by a national political advocacy organization that is not based in our community. The message urged coordinated opposition to the IHRA definition and included template language instructing individuals how to represent themselves when contacting you. Regardless of one's position on the definition itself, I believe it is important for the Select Board to know that outside groups are actively mobilizing messaging into our local civic process.

Antisemitism is a serious and deeply felt issue for many members of our community, myself included. Conversations about how Concord defines and addresses antisemitism deserve to be grounded in local voices, local relationships, and the lived experiences of residents - not driven primarily by national advocacy campaigns with broader political agendas.

My request is not about silencing disagreement. Rather, it is about transparency and community integrity. I hope the Board will weigh local input carefully and remain attentive to the difference between grassroots resident perspectives and coordinated external advocacy efforts.

Thank you for your continued service to our town and for handling this sensitive issue with care.

Below is the email

Sincerely,

Debra Kavalier Wysopal

January 26, 2026

To the Town of Concord Select Board and Ms. Kerry Lafleur,

Concord-Carlisle Against Antisemitism (CCAA) submits this petition urging the Town of Concord Select Board to demonstrate leadership by issuing a standalone statement that acknowledges antisemitism and affirms a clear commitment to condemning and combating its rise. As part of this statement, we encourage the Select Board to embrace the International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) non-binding working definition of antisemitism, a widely used framework referenced by governments and institutions worldwide, including here in Massachusetts.

IHRA exists because confronting antisemitism requires a shared definition. Without one, institutions are left unable to recognize patterns or respond consistently.

The following is the non-legally binding working definition of antisemitism:

“Antisemitism is a certain perception of Jews, which may be expressed as hatred toward Jews. Rhetorical and physical manifestations of antisemitism are directed toward Jewish or non-Jewish individuals and/or their property, toward Jewish community institutions and religious facilities.”

Developed over many years by leading scholars and practitioners, IHRA is a non-binding, practical framework now used by the United States (federally, and by many states), the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the European Union, hundreds of universities and municipalities, and nearby towns including Sudbury, Westford, and Acton. Importantly, IHRA does not create penalties or enforcement mechanisms.

IHRA functions as a shared reference point for identifying antisemitism, not as a speech rule. While some critics mischaracterize IHRA as a tool to curtail free expression, this view overlooks two realities: first, speech critical of Israel and of Jewish institutions remains widespread in places that have embraced IHRA (e.g. most of the Western democratic world); and second, the absence of a clear standard can itself chill speech, particularly among students who may already feel that acknowledging their Jewish identity requires unusual courage. You've heard direct testimony to that effect.

It is also worth noting that the Massachusetts Special Commission on Combating Antisemitism described IHRA as “the most prominent” educational tool in its report last year. That Commission was co-chaired by State Representative Simon Cataldo, who represents a large share of Concord. Governor Maura Healey publicly commended the report, calling it “a critical guide for educating our children, building a better understanding of the Jewish experience, and making it clear that antisemitism has no place in Massachusetts.” Demonstrating its bipartisan support, former Governor Baker issued a proclamation in 2022 endorsing IHRA. Key leaders in the Massachusetts Legislature also publicly endorsed and praised the report. Notably, Concord’s own DEI Commission included the IHRA definition in an early draft of its recommended mission changes.

Against this backdrop, it would be striking if Concord, particularly in the wake of the events and revelations of the past year, and already in 2026, concluded that a widely embraced framework, imperfect as any framework is, should not be used here. For these reasons, CCAA and the undersigned respectfully urge the Select Board to embrace the IHRA framework and provide the clarity and leadership this moment calls for.

Thank you for your consideration,

Concord-Carlisle Against Antisemitism (CCAA) Steering Committee

We, the undersigned residents and community members, friends, family, current and former teachers, current and former students, town and private employees, and allies, concur with CCAA and support embracing the IHRA non-binding framework for defining antisemitism by the Town of Concord Select Board.

Rabbi Darby J. Leigh, Kerem Shalom of Concord: "I do support the Town adopting this definition as a tool that can help the Town of Concord fully live out the values and ideals it aspires to. Many thanks for your time and consideration. Kindness & Shalom, Rabbi Darby Leigh."

Rabbi Yisroel Freeman, Sudbury: "As a Rabbi in Sudbury and serving a community that includes many families from Concord, many of whom have reached out to me in recent months with concerns about antisemitism in Concord, I urge you to adopt this measure that will show the community where you stand and send a strong message of support for what is right and just."

Kelli Kirshtein, Maynard: "I am the JSU advisor at Concord-Carlisle High School and have served on the faculty for 30 years as a school adjustment counselor. When my Israeli-American and Jewish students are afraid to let peers know if their identity and/or support for the existence of the state of Israel for fear of being shunned or critiqued, I know it is time to clarify what anti-semitism is and that it won't be tolerated. The IHRA definition does not constrain people from their beliefs about Israel or Jews, nor does it constrain criticism of Israel as a country. But it protects Jewish students and Jews, in general, from hateful and identity-erasing comments and actions to cause great pain. The IHRA definition is common sense, clear and widely accepted. I hope it will be adopted and we can move along in fighting anti-semitism and all forms of hate."

Emily Small, Concord: "As a student at CCHS and a teacher at Kerem Shalom, I urge you to use your leadership to make a change. Police presence at temple has become a sad reality and maybe school leaders will take your lead and do something to stop the antisemitism."

Karen Burstein, Westford: "I am a Jewish teacher who has actively been fighting antisemitism. Adopting the IHRA definition and the recommendations made by the Commission on Combating Antisemitism are a good step towards making a dent in trying to address antisemitism. I teach in Bedford, and our town is also trying to prevent acts of antisemitism that have occurred in our school district. Bedford created a task force to address antisemitism and other hate in our schools."

Rachel Kay, Watertown: "As a School Committee member as well as a Jewish parent, I urge the Concord Select Board to take the initiative in adopting the IHRA definition. This guideline will help all of us better protect our Jewish children."

Amy Friedman, Sudbury: "1973 graduate of CCHS. Former CCHS teacher 2001 to 2005. I am Jewish."

Daniel Hart, Concord: "This is a much-needed widely accepted framework (that is non-legally binding) that helps to name and define antisemitism. It should be considered a helpful resource for the Concord community."

Richard Schoenfeld, Concord: "It's time for all good people to join the fight against antisemitism."

Frank Matthew Taylor, Concord: "Very important to have a framework and definition to identify antisemitism and not wrongly over accuse antisemitism"

Miriam Zarchan, Concord, co-chair of Kerem Shalom's Antisemitism Awareness team.

Susan Schwartz, Concord: "This is a critically important measure in adopting a wholistic approach to combating antisemitism. I urge its adoption."

Leah Small, Concord: "Concord leaders need to do something. I teach in a district and town that this behavior is not tolerated and the people stand up for others, Concord not so much. There is no place in the world for hate and it's about time Concord does something so our children feel safe."

Don Detweiler, Concord: "I see antisemitism all around me."

Alex Goldstein, Carlisle: "This is extremely important to me, my family and the Jewish community."

L Perl, Concord: "Thank you for your assistance in combatting antisemitism."

Hope Rubin, Concord: "To address antisemitism, Concord must recognize the IHRA definition which has been adopted internationally and locally. Let's add Concord to the list of Massachusetts towns. Thank you."

Peter Brand, Cambridge: "I am a graduate of CCHS. My parents barely survived the Nazis and Stalin's vicious anti-Semitism. I am appalled at the current state of affairs at our schools."

Kerry Hurwitz, Newton: "Do better. Anti-semitism is unacceptable."

Honi Kawut, Newton (formerly Acton): "Keep the Concord schools safe for Jewish children."

"I would like Concord Carlisle to be a safe place for Jewish students"

Robin H Goldstein, Newton Center: "The only way to protect Jews is through the IHRA definition. Otherwise people hide their antisemitic hate and actions behind claims they are just 'criticizing Israel.' IHRA allows criticism of Israel so fighting against this is just to provide a pretense to continue to harass and harm Jews. Israel is a central part of Judaism in all the prayers and holidays. It cannot be separated from Jewish identity."

Irene Neginsky, Newton: "It is a real shame that young people experience antisemitism in America!"

Ruth Vishniavsky, Newton: "I have been a Massachusetts resident for over 40 years."

Miriam Kosowsky, Newton: "My house was vandalized by Pro-Palestinian protesters. A huge 5"x5" rock was thrown through a window of a Jewish family while their young kids were sitting close by. Antisemitism is out of control in Massachusetts and we need you to take a moral stand and to protect us! We all pay for private security at synagogues, Jewish daycare centers and schools. We need your help! Thank you!"

Debra Neiman, Watertown: "The IHRA definition is a common sense guide and allows for criticism of the Israeli government."

Laura Frank, Wellesley: "I work in Concord and it's exhausting dealing with the level of antisemitism"

Renata Kuchinsky, Sharon: "Children need protection from antisemitism."

Karen Baytch, Sharon: "Jew hatred is spreading-it's a pandemic. In MA, Jews were the largest target of ALL hate crimes. Don't ignore the spread of this disease"

Alana Hanau, Sharon: "Fix this! Protect & defend all & study history"

Martin Yarmush, Sharon: "I am in complete favor of the IHRA definition"

Aylit Schultz, Brookline: "This is important to me as a Massachusetts resident and should be happening in every town across Massachusetts."

Maya Abramson, Brookline: "Prevent antisemitism on our streets! Jews are unfairly targeted and living in constant fear! Do the job you were elected for and prevent antisemitism on our streets and communities!"

"Do not let the 1930 repeat itself! It's our job to fight antisemitism now!"

Merari Dorfman, Brookline: "It impacts us all - a lot!!"

Yosef Landesman, Brookline: "Fight against antisemitism"

Judith Greenstein, Bellevue: "This is not just for your Jewish citizens. This is for all citizens who want to live in a liberal democracy and adhere to democratic values. Thank you."

Andrea Schoenfeld, Natick: "My Jewish niece and nephew attend Concord Public Schools, and as their aunt, it is heartbreaking and frightening to hear that Jewish students feel unsafe or pressured to hide who they are. No child should ever believe that silence or invisibility is the cost of belonging. When antisemitic behavior is minimized or normalized, the harm falls on children who are left to carry that burden alone. Adopting the IHRA framework is a meaningful, widely used step that gives institutions a clear and responsible way to recognize antisemitism while fully protecting free expression. I urge the Concord Select Board to embrace IHRA and send an unmistakable message that Jewish students in our community will be protected, respected, and taken seriously."

Cara Nicoletti, Dedham: "My Jewish nephew and niece are in Concord. The amount of antisemitism festering in the town has been shocking to hear about. I want them to be safe, and the IHRA is a proven framework for being able to tackle antisemitism. This should not be a controversial move and only is for people who haven't actually closely read the definition and have bought into online propaganda/hysteria about it."

Daniel Weiner, Natick: "Physician, Emerson Hospital, Concord"

Erica Silverman, Sudbury: "My son attends school in Concord and I work in Concord."

Tracey Wright, Lexington: "I am on the steering committee of LUAA (lexluaa.org)."

Kimberly Silver, Ashland: "Please consider this to help keep Massachusetts Jews safe from antisemitism."

Deb Martino, Melrose: "I support this petition and the adoption of the IHRA definition of antisemitism. Not because it's political. Not because it limits speech. But because it gives our community a shared, clear way to recognize antisemitism when it happens. Over the past year, we've seen antisemitic graffiti in schools, Jewish-owned businesses targeted, property vandalized, and students afraid to say they're Jewish. When this keeps happening, clarity matters. The IHRA definition is non-binding and non-punitive. It doesn't shut down criticism of Israel or free speech. It simply helps distinguish between legitimate debate and antisemitism — something Jewish families have been asked to explain away for far too long. Words matter. Definitions matter. And allyship matters."

Carol Barron, Acton: "Lived in Concord 45 years."

Rachel Barolsky, Watertown: "Thank you for your important efforts!"

Joanne Asher, West Orange: "I grew up in MA where my parents found refuge from the Holocaust. Please continue to do whatever you can to continue to protect Jewish people from anti-semitism."

Jennifer Minotti, Cambridge: "I am the daughter of a Holocaust survivor."

Maeva Stockbridge, Stoneham: "I fully support this petition and stand with any organization that is working to expose the antisemitism that has been rampant in our communities and universities!"

Beth Friend, Bedford: "This is essential."

Julia Allen, Bedford: "I am dual American and Israeli citizen, and appalled by antisemitism around here since October 2023"

Jonathan Sheffi, Lincoln: "The IHRA definition is vital because it moves beyond the simple 'hatred of Jews' to explain how that hatred manifests today. It creates a consensus-driven baseline that allows governments, universities, and police forces to say, 'This specific behavior crosses the line,' without having to re-litigate the nature of prejudice every time an incident occurs. Please adopt it."

Meredith Warnick, Medway: "Even from 45 minutes away, I've heard numerous accounts of the antisemitism in Concord. Please don't forget, on this day of all days, how this started 90 years ago. It started like this, with people afraid to stand up and speak up. Just because there are less of us doesn't mean it's not the right thing to do. Be brave."

Rachel Weinstein, Waltham: "Concord, we are watching you."

Jesse Greene, Agawam: "Confronting antisemitism requires a shared definition so institutions can recognize patterns and respond consistently. The International Holocaust Remembrance Alliance (IHRA) framework is a practical, non-binding tool used by the United States, more than 37 states, including Massachusetts, the European Union, 45 countries, hundreds of universities, and nearby municipalities including nearby towns like Sudbury, Westford, Acton, and many others. It creates no penalties or enforcement mechanisms and explicitly protects free expression, including criticism of governments."

Lauren Duke, Sudbury: "My kids have several activities in Concord - Concord Youth Theatre, Axiom, CC Hockey and we want to feel safe as Jews in the community. Hoping that the vote reflects a commitment to inclusion of Jewish people in Concord."

Allana Miller, Newton: "My dad has an office in Concord for over 30 years and loves it and the people. I trust you will do the right thing and embrace the IHRA framework. Thank you."

Rebecca Amariglio, Lexington: "Our children go to school in Concord."

Good Morning/ good day

Im writing from Auckland, NZ, on holiday.

I'm a longtime Jewish resident of Concord and oppose the adoption of the IHRA definition of antisemitism.

Thank you for listening.

I hope you are managing well with the snow of the decade.

Best regards.

Concord Select Board and Natural Resource Commission Members,

I had intended to read the following at this evening's Select Board meeting, but given time constraints, that was not possible. I offer it here for your consideration.

My name is Don Parker, and I live at 43 Pond Street in West Concord, not adjacent to the pond but close. The point that I want to emphasize with you today is that the trust that citizens have in government significantly impacts the ability of policymakers to work together and solve problems.

I was an interested observer of the pond task force, reading the documents, attending meetings, and following the discussion. Although I preferred a particular option, I also know that as a community we must trust the process and collectively support the outcome.

However, the process caused a segment of our community to lose trust in the institutions of their government. Specifically, the Natural Resource Department was not a neutral arbiter of the process. They preferred a specific option, which I don't find objectionable or surprising, but the process felt biased in that direction. Although in the end, the outcome was agreeable to everyone, the process was, at times, insulting to those who preferred an option other than what the natural resource department wanted. They were described as either naïve, being easily misled by false narratives, self-interested, or blindly nostalgic and unable to objectively evaluate the options.

Then we moved into implementation. In normal times, the Natural Resource Director being involved in selecting new members of the Natural Resource Commission would not even be noticed. In this environment of diminished trust, it created the perception that the deck was being stacked with people aligned with the removal of the dam.

Now we are discussing membership of the group responsible for making the pond management strategy work. The proposed membership includes two people who have been against pond management and in favor of dam removal. I am sure they are good people, but given the history of this project, it is unwise that they be Pond Management Committee members.

I ask you to think about what happens if this committee eventually determines that pond management is not working and another solution needs to be considered, perhaps dam removal. A large part of our community will conclude that the process was undermined from the start. The deterioration of trust that would be created would then be unrecoverable.

I ask the select board and the NRC to decline this proposed slate of committee members, instruct that a slate be recruited composed of people passionate about making the pond management strategy successful. If that group comes back and says that management isn't working, the conclusion will have credibility with the community.

I am asking you to think about how important it is that constituents trust their government. The slate of candidates you have in front of you will further erode trust in the Natural Resource Department and, should you approve them, will undermine trust in the NRC and the Select Board itself.

That is too high a price to pay for any transaction.

Thank you for your time and all that you do for our community.

Don Parker

On behalf of the Steering Committee of Concord-Carlisle Against Antisemitism, we want to thank you for your leadership in adopting both the standalone proclamation and the IHRA definition of antisemitism, as well as the critically important update to the DEI Commission Charge that now explicitly includes addressing antisemitism among the Commission's duties and responsibilities.

These actions give our community meaningful tools. The IHRA definition provides the community with a shared set of concepts to support thoughtful discussion as it works to understand how antisemitism manifests in Concord. Importantly, the updated Commission charge provides actionable pathways to improve safety, inclusion, and cultural awareness for Jewish residents and the broader community alike.

We recognize this was not always an easy path. The conversations were difficult at times, for you and for us, and the issues complex. We deeply appreciate that you listened to all community voices, took time to learn and understand different perspectives, and ultimately chose to move forward with what we believe is the right thing for Concord.

Your willingness to engage thoughtfully with this challenge, even when it was uncomfortable, speaks to your commitment to all residents. Thank you for your leadership and for helping us build a community where everyone can feel at home. There is clearly work to be done, and we look forward to working with you, the DEI Commission, and all others, in the spirit of allyship and community.

With gratitude,

Brian Farber, Jodi Sperber, Marc Girolimetti, Tal Rotman, Ellen Hart, Rebekah Vieira, and Daniel Hart
